

Lou Quinto

Lou brings clients over 20 years of experience in employee development, management training, executive coaching and consulting with expertise in management and critical thinking skills, professional presentation skills and motivational speaking. Lou has been working with clients internationally since 1992. His clients include General Motors, Rolls Royce, Owens Corning, AMAX Coal, Kraft Foods, KPMG, McKesson Corp, Phillip Morris, Caterpillar, Sears, Sunoco, Perot Systems, TJ Maxx, Halliburton and Bank of Montreal.

Clients consider Lou's style of training and consulting as engaging, motivating, and productive which makes him a popular choice for conducting seminars, management retreats and executive coaching sessions.

Lou has been recognized by Action Management and Associates of Plano, TX as a member of its prestigious Million Dollar Club, an award presented to individuals whose clients have documented over $1 million in savings through the use of critical thinking tools and processes. In one year, participants attending seminars led by Lou documented bottom-line savings in excess of $3.5 million.

Additionally, Lou has provided strategic planning services, consulting and training for colleges, universities, and national and local not-for-profit organizations in the area of fundraising. Lou believes in a person's ability to achieve his or her highest potential. The ideas and concepts he shares with his audiences are rooted in practical application. Participants walk away from a seminar and begin immediately using the new concepts they've learned.

Lou is a graduate of Purdue University and resides in Indianapolis, IN.
