

Doan Huynh Van Anh

Doan Huynh Van Anh is a Leadership Development Consultant and Executive Coach with Executive Development Associates, based in Vietnam. Van Anh is the Co-Founder of Life Coaching Vietnam. She is also the first Vietnamese woman to earn the title of Professional Certified Coach by the International Coach Federation (ICF).

Van Anh has 1,500 coaching hours working with more than 300 clients aged 18 – 52 since 2012 in the Entertainment, Education, Finance, IT, Training, and HR sectors. She is also a certified Myers-Briggs Type Indicator® (MBTI®) instructor, and utilizes the assessment to provide deeper access to both self and social awareness. She has conducted MBTI® trainings for the public as well as career training, résumé building, and interviewing classes.

In July 2015, she brought an ICF Coach Training program to Vietnam in collaboration with The MMS Institute, Netherlands and fellow ICF Master Certified Coach Dr. Chérie Carter-Scott. In this role she trained leaders and specialists from various backgrounds in HR, Finance, Education, Customer Services and IT to become certified coaches. Her previous clients and partners include Grab, Chubb (previously ACE Life), Fonterra, Ford, NewViet Dairy, LIN, The MMS Institute.

Before becoming a full time coach, Van Anh was an Account Director specializing in digital advertising with several advertising agencies in Ho Chi Minh City including OgilvyOne Worldwide, Biz Tequila (TBWA Group), and Riverorchid Group. She is a graduate of the National University of Singapore.

She is happily married and enjoys sharing the importance of work-life balance with her clients as well as proven strategies to achieve it. She believes strongly in teaching her clients to make better decisions in both their professional and personal lives through improved self-awareness and self-management.
