

Riya Pujara

Riya is an early career professional getting a head start into the world of Human Resources and Organizational Consulting. She serves as an Intern at EDA, Inc.

After receiving her bachelor's degree in Homoeopathic Medicine & Surgery Sciences in India, Riya decided to move to the United States to pursue a graduate degree in Psychology. She is a recent graduate and has a master's degree in Industrial-Organizational Psychology from University of Houston-Clear Lake.

Riya has a strong interest and passion for studies with Applied Psychology and Human Behavior in context of organizations which led her to take up the role of Lead Student Consultant on consulting projects throughout her graduate program. Through this, she gained experience with Change Management Consulting & Organizational Development specifically aimed at improving management effectiveness, enhancing hiring practices, and decreasing turnover using evidence-based practices and research methods.

Riya is a big advocate for all things life-affirming, a strong believer in the power of kindness and a slow-life enthusiast currently living in New York.
